

20,000 B.C. How old bow and arrow are is uncertain, but they were in use by 20,000 B.C.

The bow remained a prime weapon in warfare right down to beginning of 15th century

20,000 B.C. There are indications that primitive lamps have been in use as long ago as 20,000 B.C.

12,000 B.C.

In 1950s fossil remains of dogs were found along with remains of humans.

By 10,000 B.C. Dogs were domesticated in the Middle East

12,000 B.C. Glaciers were starting to recede

8000 B.C. Agriculture began in northern Iraq

when wheat & barley grew wild

By 8000 B.C. glaciers had receded

10,000 B.C. Population of earth may have been halved no more than 3M altogether

8000 B.C. 5M